

{joomplu:1393}

The art café known as сундук, or “chest” in English, is the first one of its kind in St. Petersburg. The interior was created by St. Petersburg’s artists, and has awesome doors to the bathroom with lots of knobs and latches that are a challenge to those who wish to go! the cafe offers live music and great food the atmosphere will amaze you and for sure you would want to return.

Some of the common visitors and performers at this great café are: uncle Mike of “DDT”, Dmitry Archangel, who performs duet nostalgic jazz music, famous guitarist Alex Ladygin, and Ksenia Arsenyev and Co., who performs French and Russian songs. Regular visitors have the opportunity to receive a discount card by which gives your great deals at Sunduk and a restaurant called “NEP.”

The “Chest” is a place where it is impossible not to come back. Having been here once, you just have to have more! The restaurant offers Russian and European cuisine and is located at Fursh tatskaya St. 42.

Average bill without drinks: 1000 rubles.

Business hours: Monday through Friday 10 am - midnight; Saturday and Sunday 11 am- midnight. Kitchen closes at 11 pm
Address: Furshtatskaya St. 42, closest metro station Chernyshevskaya (Чернышевская)

Average check:
500-1000 RUB

Additional information:
wi-fi, drawing tools for kids.

{joomplu:1394}{joomplu:1395}{joomplu:1396}{joomplu:1397}

View Larger Map

Back to St-Petersburg restaurants