

{joomplu:64}

Are tired of pompous restaurants and you want to escape the hurry and rush of everyday? Welcome to the SOVIET CAFE KVARTIRKA (Russian: Квартирка, literally translated as “Little apartment”). The unusual style of this art-cafe goes back to the 60s and 70s and is so common of the soviet apartment of that time. The 15 kinds of pelemeni (ravioli) and vareniki (half circular dumplings, traditionally stuffed with potato filling or ground meat) will have you wanting to try everything before you finally make up your mind! While awaiting your order, you can kill some time over a game of checkers or dominoes, watch a soviet movie on a big screen or listen to the quiet music.

Business hours: Noon - 1 a.m. Average check: $15-20 Address: Станция метро Маяковская или Площадь Восстания, Невский проспект 51 (Metro Mayakovskaya or Ploshad' Vosstaniya Nevsky pr. 51)

Oth

er:

drawing tools for kids. Wifi.

{joomplu:64} {joomplu:65} {joomplu:66} {joomplu:67} {joomplu:68} {joomplu:69}

{joomplu:70}

{joomplu:71}

{joomplu:72}

{joomplu:73}

{joomplu:74}

{joomplu:75}

{joomplu:76}

{joomplu:77}

{joomplu:78}

{joomplu:79}

{joomplu:80}

{joomplu:81}

{joomplu:82}

View Larger Map

Back to St-Petersburg restaurants