Best review:

I am absolutely in love with this small chain of cafes. Each one is more beautiful than the last, and their service is impeccable. They offer English menus and speak fluently, for those of you who are not familiar with the language, but are happy to practice Russian with you if you choose. The food is delicious (perhaps a little on the pricey side), but tea and snacks are quite reasonable. My favorite location is the one on Малая Морская ул., 24 (Malaya Morskaya Street, Building 24) just kiddy-corner from St. Isaac's Cathedral. I once spent an entire afternoon studying there, and the waiter brought my friend and I free cookies to help with our study session! So, don't spend all your time at a Шоколадница (Shokolodnitsa) or a КофеХауз (Coffee House)! The most relaxing and positive cafe experience you will ever have - Kayla Keirstyn Torrison from the USA.
