

{joomplu:2018 left}

If you are looking for a Work Visa to travel to, work and stay in Russia for up to 3 years, you will need a significant package of documents and this can be overwhelming, particularly if you are not familiar with the visa system. There is no doubt that it can be a hassle when you don't know what you need and you can spend a great deal of time putting together all the letters of invitation and other documentation together.

We are here to help you. All we need from you is your basic information and we will do the rest. Our processes are robust and we have a long history of managing this process so that you can obtain the work visa you need with the minimum of effort on your part, but with the peace of mind that comes from knowing you are working with an expert. There is no doubt that the system is complex and confusing, but when you have an experienced business partner working with you, you don't need to worry about those complexities.

We are also specialists in finding cheap accommodation in St. Petersburg with access to all the major hotels which is especially important for business travel to St. Petersburg. We are dedicated to becoming your business travel partner in Russia.

For questions, email us at stpetersburgguide@inbox.ru or contact St Petersburg Guide on facebook.